

Supplementary file 2: Feedback about the new pharmacy emergency department (ED) service at Morriston Hospital from consultants, registrars and junior doctors (n=35) using a 5-point Likert scale (where 1=strongly disagree and 5=strongly agree)

Table 1: Consultants (n=11)

Questions	STRONGLY DISAGREE					STRONGLY AGREE
	1	2	3	4	5	1	2	3	4	5
The pharmacy team are integral members of the medical team in ED at Morriston				4	7
I see no value in having a pharmacist and pharmacy technician based in ED	11
Obtaining drug histories from patients should be the role of the clerking doctor	1	2	2	2	4
The pharmacy team help me to prescribe more safely			1	1	9
The pharmacy team play a significant role in reducing prescribing errors				3	8
All interventions brought to my attention by the ED pharmacist are relevant			1	4	6
I frequently discuss drug-related issues with members of the ED pharmacy team		1		3	7
Information on drug-related issues provided by pharmacists enhances my learning			2	1	8
Removing the pharmacy team from ED will have little impact on patient care	8	2		1
The pharmacy team in ED are approachable					11
I frequently ask the pharmacist in ED for advice			2	5	4
The presence of the pharmacy team in ED improves patient care				1	10

Table 2: Registrars (n=8)

Questions	STRONGLY DISAGREE					STRONGLY AGREE
	1	2	3	4	5
The pharmacy team are integral members of the medical team in ED at Morrision					8
I see no value in having a pharmacist and pharmacy technician based in ED	7	1
Obtaining drug histories from patients should be the role of the clerking doctor			5	1	2
The pharmacy team help me to prescribe more safely				1	7
The pharmacy team play a significant role in reducing prescribing errors				1	7
All interventions brought to my attention by the ED pharmacist are relevant			1	3	4
I frequently discuss drug-related issues with members of the ED pharmacy team				1	7
Information on drug-related issues provided by pharmacists enhances my learning				3	5
Removing the pharmacy team from ED will have little impact on patient care	7	1
The pharmacy team in ED are approachable					8
I frequently ask the pharmacist in ED for advice				3	5
The presence of the pharmacy team in ED improves patient care				1	7

Table 3: Junior Doctors (n=16)

Questions	STRONGLY DISAGREE					STRONGLY AGREE
	1	2	3	4	5
The pharmacy team are integral members of the medical team in ED at Morrision			1		15
I see no value in having a pharmacist and pharmacy technician based in ED	16
Obtaining drug histories from patients should be the role of the clerking doctor	1	1	10	1	3
The pharmacy team help me to prescribe more safely			1	1	14
The pharmacy team play a significant role in reducing prescribing errors				3	13
All interventions brought to my attention by the ED pharmacist are relevant				3	13
I frequently discuss drug-related issues with members of the ED pharmacy team				5	11
Information on drug-related issues provided by pharmacists enhances my learning				4	12
Removing the pharmacy team from ED will have little impact on patient care	14	2
The pharmacy team in ED are approachable		1			15
I frequently ask the pharmacist in ED for advice			1	5	10
The presence of the pharmacy team in ED improves patient care				3	13					